

29.30.31 October 2015
Bangalore International Exhibition Center, Bengaluru

SPEAKER PROFILE

Amit Marwah
CTO (Chief Technology Officer),
Nokia India Region

Delegate Registration

With over 22 years of professional experience in technology, presales and business management positions, Amit has in-depth understanding of the Indian telecommunication market. He has held various roles in organizations like Lucent Technologies where spend more than 7 years in roles from operations to technology presales. He moved to Motorola as the Sr-manager in the Engineering and sales team and spend about 3 years there, joined Nokia between 2005 and 2009 as Network Solution Manager and then Head of Core Networks for India. Amit was also the Director for Core Networks at Huawei Technologies (2009 to 2011) and rejoined NSN in 2011 where he was engaged in New Business Acquisition.

His current role in NSN as CTO India region include technology positing and value based augmentation that have both internal and external (operators, regulatory and policy oriented) interfacing roles focusing on topics s.a. network security, technology evolution, Standardization, Spectrum management and other 3GPP linked matters.